Re: In re: George Soros, et al., MUR 5642

Dear Ms. Smith:

We represent the World Affairs Council of Philadelphia, which is named as a respondent in the above-referenced complaint.

The World Affairs Council received by mail a letter addressed to co-respondent Fenton Communications Inc., together with a copy of the complaint.

During a telephone call on Friday, February 4, 2005, you informed me that the letter and complaint were mistakenly transmitted to the World Affairs Council, and requested that I return to the FEC the original papers received by the World Affairs Council. You told me that the FEC did not intend to serve papers on the World Affairs Council and that no response from the World Affairs Council is required.

I have enclosed the original letter and complaint addressed to co-respondent Fenton, together with the envelope in which they were received.
